A Few Facts

To Ponder Over.

No merchant whose expenses are large can sell goods at a small profit. We do most our work ourselves, buy our goods from the best houses in the city, and best of all, content ourselves with the lowest margin of profit.

Our New

Fall Goods

Are in and our store is crowded with Bargains for everybody.

We buy your produce, pay the highest price for it, and believe we can save you money on anything that can be obtained in a first-class

GENERAL STORE.

Come to see us, we take as much pleasure in showing you our goods as some merchants do in selling you.

JAS. T. HAMILTON, Proprietor,

A Stingy Man.

"There goes the stingiest man in Sixteen States," said Skookum, the general storekeeper of Skookumville to the reporter who had stopped him on the Flintville Court house steps.

The reporter turned in time to see a stoop shouldered, raw-boned muscular, sunburnt man above ordinary height going up the steps.

He was clad in a much worn suit of homemade jeans, and an old broad brimmed felt hat covering a crop of foot ball brains.

"That man?" asked the reporter "yes that man," said the grocer from Skookumville.

"Well as time is on the drag, and news is scarce, perhaps I can get a nice little article for the press. Hope I will not intrude on your time, said the pencil puncher as he took out his note-book.

Not at all, not at all Mr. Editor, it is two hours till my train leaves and my work is all done and I just wanted to talk to some one a spee," said Skookum as he sat down on the stone steps.

"All right. Shall I say Mr. Skookum, of Skookumville vouches for the following story?" the reporter said as he sharpened his pencil. "Yes say Skookum vouches for it an' everybody thereabouts will know it is true, for everybody knows Skookum. I have been in business in Skookumville nigh on to 20 years for myself and 10 years for my father. Why I am the whole push there except the station agent. I run a general store, am Post Master, grain and stockbuyer, lumber, lime and cement, and am the Justice of pence, so what I say goes."

"Any danger making this man mad? Haden't I better use a fictitious name?" asked the reporter. "No," said the person of note from Skookumville. He'll never see it. He don't take no papers. Not even the country news. Says he cant afford it. When he comes to the store to trade out the butter and eggs, which aint often, he allus asks me to put a few old papers in the pail as Jane that's his wife, likes to read powerful well. I often ask him why he don't take some papers. Atleast the country paper to help out the country. 'O,' said he, 'I can't afford it.' Better let the country do without my support of the paper than to keep me and Jane in the poor house and bury us at the expense of the county when we are dead. I tell you he is the stingiest man you ever saw. Why he walked to the county seat today and its 16 1/2 miles from his place and when we passed him out at switch, three miles from here, he was plodding along barefooted and carrying his shoes to save the wear and tear of the leather. You saw the little bundle he carried. That is his dinner. He carried it from home."

"Poor man. He must be in very bad circumstances. I'll send him the News and pay for it myself," said the reporter.

"Poor, ejaculated Skookum, Jones poor. Why man he owns six hundred and forty acres of the best land in this county and came to town today to draw out the money to pay for another eighty. My he squin when he has to pay the war tax on the check."

"He has horses why didn't he ride to town?" Too hard on the horses feet, too expensive to get them shod. Why one of his hired men is married and lives four miles from Jones house. He had to walk home Sunday morning and back Sunday night. Finally he hit a shrewd plan. He told Jones if he would let him ride one of the horses in the pasture he would go home before supper Saturday night and come back after breakfast Monday morning and take good care of the horse, the plan worked and now he rides. In the summer that man takes his cattle out of a clover pasture knee deep and herds them on the road every Sunday and to make them eat, shuts them in a dry pen Saturday night. A-fraid the pasture will give out."

He can't be honest, said the reporter. Honest? every body knows he is honest. A neighbor bought a setting of eggs from him that came to 12 1/2 cents and gave Jones 13 cents. Hold on, said Jones that is all right said the man no, said Jones, I want every penny due me, and every man to have the same and he actually cut one of the pennies in two and gave the man half. The next day the man asked me how much tobacco that would buy I told him he could have 1 pound of the best tobacco in the store and he took me up there is the half penny said the storekeeper pulling the mutilated peice of money out of his pocket. And its worth one years subscription of the news if you will let me have it, said the reporter. All right, said Skookum handing it to the reporter "I expect I will get the other half in a day or two I wouldn't let this go. I found out something the other day Jones is using water from the school house at all time. He asked the director if he could. Said it would be better for the children if kept pumped out. Fact is, it saves wearing out his own pump and using up the water in his own well, though he has plenty, for he told me it ran faster than it could be pumped out.

"I suppose he was looking to the welfare of the children; his own, for instance." Said the newspaper man.

"His own," and the justice whistled. "Why, man, eh hasn't a child in the world never had any and my little girls say he is too stingy to buy one. There he comes now. Suppose he will walk home? asked the reporter. No he will ride to Moose five miles this side of his house and walk the rest of the way instead of riding to Skookumville and walking back 1 1/2 miles and cheat the railroad company out of 19 1/2 cents.

Good-by much obliged. I'll tickle him for a subscription for the News. If he does not subscribe I'll believe your story and it will be published.

Good-by my story will be published and Skookum sauntered on down the street.—O. I. Ellis in Farmers' Friend.

As Spain does not possess nor control the Philippine Islands, the most important of which, outside of Manila, are now in the hands of the insurgent natives, she cannot give us possession. What she is asked to concede is her title—in other words, the right of conquest without Spanish interference. We demand the right to subjugate unmolested a people who have for years fought for their freedom and independence, and who declare, through their leaders, their purpose to continue the struggle. If the concession were granted we should secure by treaty another war, not of freedom, but of subjugation. We offer to pay $20,000,000 to a beaten foe for this worthless title to islands which it will cost us $100,000,000 to conquer and $30,000,000 a year to govern. This stipulation would endanger the ratification of the treaty.—New York World.

Chicago, under private ownership of electric lights, paid $250 per year for lights, and under municipal ownership pays $96 a year per light. On every hand the poor trash are asserting themselves and taking our means of living away. To take $154 per light away from our crowd in a large city reduces our "earnings" considerably.

CORRESPONDENCE

DARLINGSVILLE.

Christmas passed off very quietly here.

Samuel Martin gave a very lively dance Monday night.

John Smethers and Sam Woods, of Indian Fields, were here the first of the week.

Miss Carrie Hoskin, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Carrie Barnett, are visiting Mrs. Grant Elkin at Log Lick.

Vaughn's Mill.

Several from here attended Winchester court Monday.

E. G. Wills, of Harrodsburg, is visiting the family of W. L. Jackson.

Misses Mary B. Bush and Mary Low, of Stanton, are visiting relatives here.

The young people of this place are celebrating Christmas with big dinners and dances.

Butler Jackson, of Pilot View, was here Sunday night visiting relatives. He returned home Monday morning.

Chas. Rupard, Chas. Tapp, Morgan Gravett, Amos Boone, Wm. Swope, of Wade's Mill, are spending the holidays with friends at this place.

John Frazier gave the young folks a dance Monday night. The house was filled to overflowing and they continued the dance until 7 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Iron Mound.

Several persons went to Winchester Court last Monday.

Miss Eliza Jordan is quite sick with lagrippe at this writing.

The boys are having a merry Christmas drinking mountain dew and going to old time dances and socials.

We have had several fine days over head during the past week, but oh my, the mud seems to be bottomless or at least has been during the thaw.

Married, Dec. 22nd inst, at the residence of the bride, Miss Ida Warmoth to Mr. Thos. Walters. May their paths be strewn with flowers all along the pathway of life.

Ye correspondent found quite a freak of nature not long since while watching Uncle Sun Roland bolt board timber from a white oak tree 2 ft. and 3 in. in diameter and perfectly sound except a small portion of the heart of the tree he took from the heart of a 2 ft. cut that, grew about 7 ft. from the ground, some 18 or 20 acorns.

Uncle George Allen while partaking of the juice of the forbidden fruit on Christmas day, layed down on the road side to sleep off his drowsiness, and we hear some person passing by took Uncle George, or from his general appearance the Old Santa Claus, and as Santy did not visit the passerby on Christmas eve, and he was in need of a new pair of shoes, he relieved Uncle George of his new shoes

Well Nick, as I have not heard from you for some time I have about concluded that you are either dead or gone to Cuba to grow up with the country. You certainly are not dead for if you were our columns would be dressed in mourning.

Well, Mr. Editor as I have written quite lengthy this time, and hope it will all be of interest I will close by wishing both Editor and readers of the Times a Merry Christmas, and as this will be our last paper this year, we also hope the New Year will be as prosperous and happy as the old has been.

LAST WEEK.

The supposition with the people is that the holidays will be celebrated with a few weddings.

T. E. Tipton went over to Miller's creek last Sunday and stayed over for county court at Irvine Monday.

The cold spell has broken, the snow has melted and gone and mud from four to six inches deep is in its stead.

The boys had a little scrap at one of their recent hops and we think the dances are over for awhile in this neck of the woods.

Some unknown person entered one room of the residence of J. W. Sparks, the family was in another room and the women folks were so scared that they would not let Mr. Sparks go in and entertain his unwelcome visitor. All night raiders, assassins and robbers pitch on the blind, old and infirm to attack and never go where a warm reception of powder and lead

DIED.

The remains of Thomas Henderson, a former citizen of Estill county, and a brother-in-law of Mr. L. T. Wilson, of this city, and those of his daughter, Miss Lona Henderson, were brought here Wednesday night from Middleton, Ohio, and taken to Estill county yesterday on the noon train for burial. The bereaved widow and her four daughters accompanied the remains. Miss Lona, who is remembered as the handsome visitor of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Wilson two years ago, died Monday, and the family decided to bring her remains to Kentucky, the body of her father, who died a year ago, was disinterred and both will find repose in their native soil.—Richmond Register.

ARE YOU A DEMOCRAT?

An old adage reads: "There is a place for everything," and for everything to be in its place, the LOUISVILLE DISPATCH should find a place in the home of every DEMOCRAT in the SUNNY SOUTH. The Dispatch is the people's paper, owned by the people, and is always ready to fight for the cause of the people. IT STANDS SQUARELY ON THE CHICAGO PLATFORM, without the aid or consent of the Gold Bug Monopolies, and a fair comparison of its news service (now being furnished over leased wires by the New York Sun, the Chicago Inter Ocean and the Northern Press Association) with that of any other paper, will fully verify its motto, "If you see it in the Dispatch it's so, and if it's so it is always in the Dispatch."

The Dispatch also has a staff of over 300 active correspondents in the South, and will POSITIVELY GUARANTEE MORE THAN DOUBLE THE SOUTHERN NEWS of any other Louisville paper. Get the Dispatch; it gives the news and tells the truth about it.

Daily, 8 pages; Sunday, 24 pages; Weekly, 8 pages. We club with the Weekly Dispatch at the remarkably low price of

The TIMES has enjoyed a lively Christmas.

We have had some real nice
Christmas weather.

J. W. McKinney, of Levee, was out Tuesday.

The Richmond Climax got out
a special Christmas issue.

Romp Curtis gave the youngsters a dance Monday night.

Merchants report Christmas goods pretty well disposed of.

David Crow, of Ruthton, spent Christmas at his old home.

The TIMES wishes one and all a Happy and Prosperous
New Year.

J. A. Walters and James G.
Easter, of Iron Mound, were in town Monday.

Jeff Douglas, of Levee, spent Christmas with his relatives in this county.

David Snowden, the Barber, made a trip to Bourbon county
the first of the week.

It has been fully demonstrated that liquor is a very dangerous thing to handle during Christmas times.

Begin the New Year by subscribing for the TIMES and keeping yourself posted on your home affairs.

Joe McKinney is spending the holidays with his sister, Mrs. G.
W. Lewis, at Thompson.

To keep yourself posted you should read the SPOUTSPRING TIMES and Louisville Dispatch.

Begin the new year by paying up all honest debts, and see how much better you will feel.

A new set of resolutions will be made by many people tomorrow to be broken by the next Saturday.

Misses Mima and Mollie. Mc-Kinney visited Misses Sarilda and Kate Wiseman, of Sams, Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lowry, of Hadden, visited the latter's father, W. J. Christopher, the first of the holidays.

The Kentucky Colonel, a sprightly little paper published at Livingston, issued a handsome Christmas edition.

One years subscription to the TIMES would make a friend of yours a nice New Year's gift.

Misses Millie and Josie Elkin, of Virden, visited Mrs. J. W.
Dawson during the week.

Quite a number from adjoining neighborhoods attended the Christmas tree Saturday night.

The ever enterprising and up-to-date Dover News issued a Christmas number of sixteen pages.

The saloon men of Richmond will contest the recent local option which was won by the anti saloons.

Winchester Court.

About three hundred cattle on the market yesterday, nearly all of an inferior character.
Buyers were scarce on account of the holidays and a part of the cattle were not sold. Prices ruled about the same as last Court Day.

Among the sales were the following:

Hodgkin Bros., sold thirty steers at $25 40 each, about 2 1/2 cts.

Thos. Hagan sold to Anderson Italy a lot of heifers, wt.
775 lbs., at 3 1/2 cts.

Irvine Hays sold to Mr.
Welsh, of Montgomery county,
8 fat cows, wt. 850 lbs. at $2 85.

Raymond Shearer bought 29 steers and bulls, average wt. about 500 lbs., at $12 each.

J. A. Nash sold to Al Thomson ten plain steers, wt. 800
lbs., at 3 1/2 cts.

John Lutes sold a mixed lot of bulls, steers and heifers from 300 to 700 lbs., at 2 1/2 to 3c.

Clayton Strode bought a milch cow for $35.

John P. Bush bought a pair of oxen weighing 2,900 lbs., at 3 1/2 cts; also a fair milch cow for $33.

Jas. S. Wade bought 10 fat cows and heifers, wt. 700 lbs., at $17 10 each.

Luther Hamilton bought 10
plain steers, 550 lbs., at $13 50 each.

S. L. Vanmeter bought of Thos. Hagan six heifers, wt.
700 lbs., at 3 1/2 cts., and 5 of same wt. at $3 10.

John Fishback bought of Thos. Hagan, 8 yearling steers at 4 cts. per lb. and $1 off the lot.

Jas. Shackelford sold a bull,
wt. 1,100 lbs., at 2 1/2 cts.—Winchester Democrat.

Nothing is so good for an ignorant man as silence; and if he was sensible of this he would not be so ignorant.

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it?

Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?

If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
For sale by J. W. Dawson
& Bro.

Mr. Hardin Norris, clerk of the drug store of R. Shoemaker, Perry, Ill., says: "A man came into our store the other day and said,
'I want a little of that stuff that saves children's lives. I read in the News about it. The children may get sick when we can not get the doctor quick enough. It's the medicine you sell for croup.'"
He alluded to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and bought a bottle before he left the store. For sale by J. W. Dawson & Bro.

CLAY CITY, KY.

An English jurist was asked what was the extreme penalty for bigamy, when instead of saying so many years in the penitentiary as most of us would, said: "Two mothers-in-law."

Old newspapers for sale at 20 cents per hundred.

At Work Again.

Tollgate raiders blew up the tollgate and house on the Harrisonville and Bagdad turnpike, near Waddy, one night last week.

Horse Disease Fatal.

The mysterious horse disease that has been proving so fatal among the horses of Owen county, shows no abatement, and it seems that nothing can be done to stop its ravages.

White Caps Indicted.

At the recent term of the Knott County Circuit Court, forty persons were indicted for kluksluxing.

A small church was sadly in need of general repairs, and a meeting was being held in it with a view to raising funds for that purpose. The minister having said $500 would be required, a very wealthy (and equally stingy) member of the congregation rose and said he would give one dollar. Just as he sat down, however, a lump of plaster fell from the ceiling and hit him on the head whereupon he rose up hastily and at once called out that he made a mistake; he would give $50. This was too much for an enthusiast present, who forgetful of everything, called out fervently: "Oh, Lord, hit him another!"

At Owensboro, Internal Revenue Collector Franks has mailed to all employes of his office a circular letter to the effect that they must pay all personal debts or get out of the public service. The late Col. A. M. Swope is said to have been the first collector who enforced this system of honesty on the compulsory plan.

It is funny, isn't it? Farmers, when they wish to retire, move to town. Town people, when they wish to retire, move to the country. A man has poor health and he moves to town to rest up and get well, where he will not be bothered with hard work. The town man, when he has poor health, will go to the country with his tent and will pitch it under some shady tree, where he may enjoy the country air and rusticate in the enjoyment of a perpetual picnic.

The Laborer and His Hire.

"Run back to the hotel and see if I left my watch in my room. Here's half a dollar if you're back before the train starts."

The intelligent messenger was off like a shot.

He was back just as the train was pulling out.

"Yes, sir," he cried; "you left it there; I saw it there myself. Gimme my half dollar!"—Boston Citizen.

A New Monopoly.

Hardfax—"Hello, Honeydew! Haven't seen you in an age. What are you doing now?"

Honeydew—"I'm living in Chicago, trying to make an honest living."

"Well, old boy, you ought to succeed. You haven't any competition."—Life.
